Optional lament for use with "All Will Be Well"

Refrain

Loving God,
we gather in worship, offering our praise,
yet also acknowledging there is pain in our midst.
In whatever situation we may find ourselves,
you graciously welcome us into your presence.
Held in your Spirit, we can sing:

Refrain

Held in your Spirit, we can also admit that it is not always easy to sing these words,
and there are times when we cannot sing them.
While we yearn to trust in your promises,
we have experienced the reality of lies, deceit, and dishonesty.
Some of us have been left wounded by the words and actions of others,
so much so that our voices fall silent.
For those who cannot join in the song today, we sing on their behalf:

Refrain

Sometimes all we can do is cling desperately to these words as life around us changes.
We pray for those among us who are in transition,
those who are mourning losses, those who are sick,
and those experiencing the turbulence of the seasons of life.

May this community be a place of safety for all seeking refuge,
and may we find comfort and rest in your Word:

Refrain

In all manner of things,
when praise resounds from our lips,
when pain silences our souls,
and all moments in between,
your love endures and sustains.
Give us the faith to trust in your love
and hope in your Word
that all will be well. Amen.
